Sen. Kennedy, Johnson to Plan Switch of Power

President-Elect To Fly to Latter's Ranch in Texas

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy flies today to the Texas ranch of the new administration's vice president, Lyndon B. Johnson, for planning of the forthcoming switch of power from Republican hands.

The Kennedy-Johnson talks beginning this evening and continuing through Thursday are expected to deal also with preliminary formulation of a congressional legislative program against the background of campaign promises on a wide range of domestic and international matters.

First Time Since Election

The Democratic winners will be meeting for the first time since their election last week over Republicans Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Kennedy arranged to take off from his vacation headquarters in the late afternoon aboard a chartered jet airliner. From Palm Beach he flies to Bergstrom Air Force Base near Austin, Tex., and switches there to a small plane for about a 60-mile flight to the LBJ ranch at Johnson City.

Johnson, who moves to the vice presidency in January from his powerful post as Senate Democratic leader, arranged to meet Kennedy at Bergstrom and escort him to the ranch.

After a tour of the ranch and dinner, the president-elect and Johnson will get down to serious talking about the Kennedy program for moving America ahead in the 1960s.

Full Round of Conferences

Scheduled Thursday is a full round of further conferences into the early evening but there may be some time out for recreation.

The Texas hunting season for white tail deer opens a few hours after Kennedy's arrival, and herds of these swift animals are a familiar sight on the LBJ ranch on the Pedernales River.

Kennedy plans to be back at Palm Beach, where since last Friday he has been staying at the home of his parents, by midnight Thursday.

The Florida stay has been a combination of work and relaxation. Tuesday afternoon the president-elect conferred for two hours with one of his earliest and staunchest supporters, Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut. Then they played nine holes of golf—and Ribicoff reported Kennedy the winner, one-up in match play.

Ribicoff, also vacationing in Florida, has been mentioned prominently for a Cabinet post or some other key position in the new administration.

But he told a news conference after his session with Kennedy that the president-elect made him no job offer.

25 Countians Summoned for Jury Duty

A venire of 25 prospective jurors has been called to report for petit jury Monday at 9 a.m. at the Courthouse in Lisbon.

Liz's Ailment Diagnosed as Not Serious

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor's multimillion-dollar illness finally has been diagnosed by doctors as a comparatively minor irritation of the membranes covering the brain. It is called meningitis and usually is found only in children.

Fears were expressed Sunday when the actress, weeping and clutching her head, was rushed to the London Clinic that she might be suffering from meningitis. Tuesday night, after 48 hours of suspense, the diagnosis ruling out meningitis was announced.

A spokesman for Dr. Carl Goldman, physician for Miss Taylor, explained that "meningitis is caused by a bacteria which is inside the brain. Meningitis is caused by an infection outside the brain and its effects are ephemeral."

"I was unable to say what the treatment for meningitis would be or how long Miss Taylor would have to stay in the clinic. He said it was possible she would return to the United States for further treatment to complete her recovery."

Miss Taylor awoke "considerably refreshed" today after a peaceful night's sleep, the clinic reported.

Dr. Goldman said the meningitis may have been caused by an abscessed tooth or teeth and it would be up to a dentist to decide if extractions were necessary.

During the two months the 28-year-old beauty has been sick causing costly delay in the movie "Cleopatra", doctors have been baffled more often than not. Finally they discovered she had an abscessed tooth, whose removal seemed to restore her to health.

Suit Filed to Halt Building of Stark Jail

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A lawsuit was filed here Tuesday aimed at preventing the three present Stark County Commissioners from building a county jail to house more than 300 prisoners near churches, a college and a park.

The petition seeks an injunction restraining the commissioners from advertising for bids or awarding contracts on the county-owned land in northwest Canton. A hearing will be held Nov. 25 on the suit filed by Mr. Helen E. Mohr of Canton and David Cowan of Alliance. The county jail is estimated to cost $2,226,000.

a vote determine their own future. The referendum in France and Algeria, De Gaulle told the Cabinet, will be called at the proper time.

In a speech on Nov. 4 De Gaulle spoke of the possibility of a referendum but did not commit himself to it. In the same speech he said a new Algeria will be administered by the Algerians themselves at every level of government.

The new policy, introducing the possibility of an Algerian republic, has stirred up right-wing opposition, especially among veterans and Europeans in Algeria.

Several thousand youths rioted in Algiers for several hours last Friday on Armistice Day pelting police with stones, tomatoes and other missiles. Fifty persons were injured.

Government authorities in Algiers met mounting tension today by arresting several rightist leaders and banning distribution of today's issues of two Paris newspapers.

The arrested included a municipal councillor, known for his determined advocacy of an Algeria united to France, and the president of a local political group that follows Pierre Poujade, the French anti-tax firebrand.

The newspapers seized were France-Soir and Paris Presse. One of the papers quoted a military chaplain's funeral sermon to a soldier audience in which the chaplain said, "You have fallen on days when you no longer know the reasons for which you are asked to die."

About 500,000 troops have been trying to put down a nationalist rebellion which has been going on for more than six years.

Dr. Pritchard of Columbiana Heads Medical Society

Dr. Leonard Pritchard of Columbiana was elevated to the presidency of the Columbiana County Medical Society at a meeting Tuesday night at the Hotel Wick at Lisbon. He succeeds Dr. William Horger of East Liverpool.

Dr. Fred Banfield of East Liverpool was named president-elect, and Dr. Virgil Hart of Salem was named secretary-treasurer.

Elected to the board of censors were Dr. R. C. Costello of East Liverpool, Dr. F. R. Crowe of Salem and Dr. Paul Beaver of Leetonia.

About 41 attended the meeting at which announcement was made of a 50-year pin and citation for Dr. John Atchison of East Palestine.

Dr. F. D. Irwin, East Liverpool dentist, spoke on the use of hypnosis in medicine. The society and women's auxiliary will have a joint Christmas dinner meeting, set tentatively Dec. 11 at East Liverpool Country Club.

Atom Bomb Spy Greenglass Free After 9½ Years

Testimony Helped Send Sister, Her Husband to Chair

NEW YORK (AP) — David Greenglass, the convicted atom bomb spy who helped send his sister and her husband to the electric chair, went free today after 9½ years in prison.

The short, meek-looking man emerged at 8:35 a.m. from the federal house of detention. He was accompanied by his attorney, O. John Rogge, who ruled out any statement.

Greenglass appeared terrified as he confronted 60 newsmen and photographers and heard derogatory shouts from longshoremen and truckers attracted to the scene.

Undisclosed Destination

"Drop dead, you lousy Communist," a voice in the hostile crowd yelled as Greenglass and his attorney got into a taxicab and left for an undisclosed destination.

Someone else directed the cab, "Drive him off the pier, right into the river, the dirty rat."

Greenglass accepted the slurs in silence.

Greenglass, now 38, was sentenced to 15 years in prison in 1951 for his part in the spy plot. He got time off for good behavior.

He served his term in the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., and was transferred to the Federal House of Detention here last weekend to facilitate his release.

Plans Not Disclosed

What are his plans? Does he have a job? No one is saying.

It was Greenglass' testimony that helped send his brother-in-law, Julius Rosenberg, and his sister, Ethel Rosenberg, to the Sing Sing Prison death chair.

Greenglass, a former Brooklyn machinist and U.S. Army technician, pleaded guilty for his part in the theft of U.S. atomic secrets, which were passed on to the Soviets. He was the government's key witness at the Rosenbergs' trial.

A radar expert, Morton Sobell, joined the Rosenbergs in denying their guilt and stood trial with them. All three were convicted. Sobell was sentenced to 30 years. The Rosenbergs were executed in June 1953.

Another member of the ring, Harry Gold, a Philadelphia biochemist, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to from 8 to 30 years in prison.

Sobell and Gold are still in prison.

Why did Greenglass steal atomic information? He said it was because he felt the Soviet Union—wartime ally of the United States—was entitled to it.

Belonged To Red League

Greenglass was born on New York's lower East Side, and in his youth belonged to the Young Communist League. In 1943, he was inducted into the Army and a year later sent to Los Alamos, N.M., where he worked on the atomic bomb.

Greenglass provided a sketch of the bomb—the type dropped on

$300,000 School Annex Proposed

Lisbon Board to Place Bond Issue on Ballot

LISBON—Lisbon Village Board of Education at its meeting Tuesday night voted to submit a bond issue to a vote of the people at a special election next year for the purpose of constructing a $300,000 annex to McKinley School.

The building would contain 14 classrooms and two toilet rooms and would be constructed at the rear of the present structure. A 60 per cent affirmative vote would be required for passage of the issue.

The annex is necessary, school officials say, because of mounting enrollment in village schools.

AGAINST INTEGRATION — Teen-aged girls shout at police in front of New Orleans' William Frantz elementary school. Crowd tension boiled over at the integration of the previously all-white school.

Integration Enters Third Day

Whites Boycott N. Orleans Schools

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A silent reception greeted three Negro first graders today when they arrived at school as the New Orleans public school integration entered its third day.

Unlike the first two days of the integration dispute, only a few spectators turned out at McDonogh No. 19, one of the two all-white schools integrated by federal court order.

There were no boos, yells or taunts.

The number of white school children attending McDonogh fell off. Only two were seen entering the school — its normal enrollment 467—when the bell rang.

Louisiana legislators Tuesday urged white parents to keep their children away from the integrated schools.

But one mile away from the silent school 50 cars filled with truant teen-agers carrying signs paraded along streets near the industrial canal.

Police cut off the caravan at the canal.

Some signs bore the insignia "KKK." Youths clung to the sides of the cars. Car horns sounded a nearly constant blare of noise.

At William Frantz school, the one Negro girl showed up late, nearly at 9:30 a.m. The crowd that watched four U.S. marshals escort her into the school was smaller, probably under 200.

Two white children carried an effigy of a little Negro girl through the crowd. There were cheers.

Police escorted the two children a block away from the school before the Negro first-grader arrived.

There were cheers for a mother withdrawing her white child from the school, jeers and taunts of "nigger-lover" for parents who brought their child to school.

Impeachment of a federal judge who ordered the integration was reported under discussion as the lawmakers ended a 12-day special session at Baton Rouge in early morning hours.

A rare closed session was called today to start a new special 30-day meeting called by Gov. Jimmie H. Davis.

Both houses approved a resolution urging a boycott of the integrated schools. The House ap-

No One Hurt In Train Derailment

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Part of a 79-car Pennsylvania Railroad freight train was derailed today at Salineville. No one was hurt.

Cause of the accident was not learned immediately. The train was en route from Canton to Mingo Junction.

Most of the cars were gondolas. About 1,000 feet of track was damaged by the derailment which occurred at 4:20 p.m. after the train had stopped to cut out one

U.S. Supports NATO A-Arms

But Awaits Kennedy Stand on Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State and Defense departments were reported substantially agreed today that the United States should provide the North Atlantic Alliance with its own strategic nuclear striking force.

In spite of this development of policy within the Eisenhower administration, high officials are uncertain what position the United States can take on the problem at a ministerial meeting of the NATO Council in Paris next month.

Any decisions which are made now on such a long-range undertaking would have to be carried out by the next administration. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and others here therefore are waiting for some indication of views from President-elect John F. Kennedy before determining finally the line they will take at the council meeting.

The basic idea behind the strategic nuclear force for NATO is to provide this country's European allies with nuclear weapons which would be committed primarily to their own defense.

Nuclear rockets are already stationed on Allied territory in the European area but they are subject to joint control of the United States and the nation on whose territory they are based.

One plan which has been talked about both here and with Allied governments would provide for placing a force of Polaris submarines under the direct control

County May Gain Additional Precincts

Columbiana County may gain additional precincts as a result of top-heavy votes cast in 28 of the 152 polling places at the Nov. 8 general election, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, said today in East Liverpool.

The board already has launched a survey with the idea of dividing some of the precincts or re-aligning the boundaries, O'Hanlon said.

The study covers the 28 precincts which cast 400 or more votes in the general election. The vote in some of the polling places was over 500, he said.

Meanwhile, the Election Board has reminded all Courthouse officials-elect that they must obtain commissions signed by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle before they can qualify for office.

The board ordinarily acts as "go between" in obtaining the commissions. It receives the $5 fees from the officials-elect and passes the cash on to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus, who issues the commissions.

Passes Bill Over Veto of Mayor Cranmer

Tax of One-Half Of One Per Cent Effective Jan. 1

After months of debate, confusion and difficulty, Salem has a city income tax.

City Council Tuesday night overrode Mayor Dean Cranmer's veto of the legislation by a unanimous vote, thereby enacting an ordinance that will provide an estimated $150,000 income during 1961.

The tax is to be effective from Jan. 1, 1961, to Dec. 31, 1961.

The tax will be collected on all incomes earned within the city at the rate of one-half of one per cent (about 50 cents on each $100).

Councilman Fred (Ike) Koenreich made the motion to override. Koenreich, finance committee chairman, said that while he realized some parties objected to the tax, there had been "equal pressure from others" for passage. He said he felt the tax "is needed" to alleviate the city's starved treasury.

Previously, Koenreich, in making his financial report, had stated that the city will be "broke to start 1961," adding there is little hope of any cash being on hand at all for the new year.

Must Borrow $10,000

Also earlier, Council had approved Mr. Koenreich's motion that the auditor be authorized to borrow $10,000 to meet city payroll for the remainder of the year.

Council's action ended nearly a year-long issue that had become a major dispute between it and Mayor Cranmer. The mayor, who twice vetoed the legislation, and, incidentally, was absent from last night's meeting—had opposed the ordinance for various reasons.

The mayor had said he was not opposed to an income tax, but was opposed to this particular one. One of the reasons was that he felt the estimated yield of $200,000 would be too great. (It was later stated by Council that the estimate had come from the tax consultant. Council itself had estimated the tax would account for $150,000 yearly).

Original legislation on the income tax was vetoed by the mayor on Sept. 2. Council could have upset the veto if it had met prior to Oct. 1, but failed to do so and became involved in a time element that made it necessary to draft a new ordinance. The second bill was vetoed Nov. 1.

Financial Picture Given

Mr. Koenreich's financial report indicated the city's General Fund is nearly exhausted. Cash balance as of Tuesday was $925.07, with unpaid bills to Oct. 1 amounting to $6,513.87.

Total receipts and balances as of Tuesday had been $13,005.02, but expenditures, including $7,976.84 for payrolls, amounted to $12,079.85, leaving the city with the meager cash balance.

Council approved several transfer ordinances presented by the finance chairman, who said the transfers were being made from unused funds to help pay bills in others. He stressed that even though the transfers were made, it did not necessarily mean that the city actually had the money. Transfers made were:

$100 from Mayor's Stationery to Mayor's Incidentals; $50 from Solicitor's Stationery to Solicitor's Incidentals; $1,000 from interest to $150 for Health Incidentals; $100 for fire department alarm system and $750 for police maintenance of equipment and supplies; $77.50 from Police New Cruiser to Police Incidentals; $500 from Storm Sewers to Street Lighting Maintenance and Supplies; and $1,400 from Building Repairs to Street Lighting Current.

Township Fire Pact Signed

Council also voted to renew the fire protection contract between the city and Perry Township Trustees for two years from Jan. 1, 1961, to Dec. 31, 1962. The city will provide fire protection in the township for $2,250 per year.

A four-way stop was created at the intersection of E. 3rd St. and Hawley Ave. The setup is mostly for protection of school children

Blue Cross Cites Expected Loss If Rates Aren't Hiked

CLEVELAND (AP) — If its request for a rate increase is not granted by the Ohio insurance superintendent, Blue Cross of Northeast Ohio claims it will lose $1.5 million in 1960.

John R. Mannix, executive vice president of Blue Cross, said also at a public hearing conducted Tuesday by Edward A. Stowell, state insurance superintendent, that if the increase is not granted, Blue Cross will lose $1 million a month beginning in 1961, and by next April 30 will exhaust its reserves.

Another hearing was set for today. Blue Cross is seeking a rate increase of 22.4 per cent for subscribers in Cuyahoga, Geauga, Lake, Lorain, Medina, Portage and Summit counties. It is to cover increased hospital costs and use, Mannix said.

In addition, Blue Cross wants a 5 per cent increase for subscribers in those even counties, plus the same 5 per cent boost for subscribers in Ashtabula, Ashland, Huron, Richland and Wayne counties. This would be to finance a plan to provide progressive discounts for subscribers reaching age 65.

Request for a delay in granting the increase came from three sources: Jerome Pollock of Detroit, United Auto Workers union insurance expert, attending the hearing with Patrick J. O'Malley, president of the Cleveland AFL-CIO; Leo Fenster, secretary of the Cleveland District Auto Council; and Ralph S. Locher, Cleveland law director.

Pollock requested that reasonable time be given his organization to study the 30 exhibits presented by Mannix. A final hearing was set by Stowell tentatively for Nov. 22.

Locher recommended that Gov. Michael V. DiSalle set up a hospital study commission to examine the organization and operation of Ohio hospitals.

LAKES FLEET TO BE IDLE

CLEVELAND (AP) — Only 30 per cent of the American bulk fleet still is in operation on the Great Lakes and the entire fleet will be laid up by a week from Thursday.

The M. A. Hanna Co. vessel department reported this Tuesday, saying the 1960 lakes shipping season is virtually ended with only 60 ships of 230 in operation. On the same day a year ago, 220 of the 241 ships were operating as part of a drive to ship iron ore to make up for time lost during the steel strike.

DiSalle Sounds Out GOP on Jobless Pay Extension

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he would call a special session of the legislature promptly to consider legislation for immediate extension of jobless benefit payments.

But, the governor declared, he would call it only if there is a reasonable chance that the legislation would be passed.

And that means, the Democratic DiSalle said, he has to be assured of enough Republican support before he would call the session.

"I am not going to waste the taxpayers' money," DiSalle said.

The governor told newsmen Tuesday he had written to sound out the views of Senate and House Republican leaders before receiving a request from the Ohio AFL-CIO for action to extend the 26-week benefit payment period to 39 weeks because of high unemployment in the state.

Although Democrats now hold majorities in both houses of the legislature DiSalle explained, their number is insufficient for passage of immediately effective emergency measures without Republican help. He said regular legislation passed in special session would not be effective for 90 days, and by then the new Republican-controlled General Assembly would be in operation. The new legislature convenes Jan. 2.

DiSalle said he would be glad to see temporary or permanent extension of benefit payments by the legislature or have a "trigger clause" in the law to cut off the extension whenever employment reaches a specified level.

The Ohio AFL-CIO had written letters to DiSalle, Senate Minority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, and House Minority Leader Rep. Roger Cloud, R-Logan, asking a special session of the legislature to extend unemployment compensation payment periods.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN

Shrewd Preventatives Thwart Phlebitis

A medical condition whose significance is too often underestimated is phlebitis (fleabite-is). In phlebitis, the wall of a vein becomes inflamed. It thus differs from the varicose vein which is merely a vessel that has become enlarged and zigzaggy. That does not mean that the two conditions may not co-exist. Indeed the varicose vein is more likely to become phlebotic than the normal vessel.

Dr. H. T. Hyman is from the site of the inflammatory process. Particularly the lungs!

Let me explain how this comes about.

BLOOD TENDS to clot on the inflamed wall. This clot, within the hollow or lumen of the vein, extends in all directions as each bit of clot invites more clot. Since the flow of blood is constant within the vein's lumen, the clot advances in the direction of the current. That is toward the larger veins that carry blood back to the heart. In the event that a fragment of clot is loosened by the force of flow, it floats in the blood stream to the heart. There it is forced out with the thrust (systole) of the next heart beat after which it enters one of the great arteries that carries blood from the heart to the various organs of the body. Most often, it is the artery that transports blood to the lungs (pulmonary).

AS THE BRANCHES of the pulmonary artery become progressively smaller with progressive narrowing of the lumen, the clot eventually gets to one through which it cannot pass. When it plugs this vessel, it is known as an embolus. And the embolized area that depends on this vessel for its nutrition is in serious difficulty unless it can manage to satisfy its needs with blood diverted from surrounding areas (collateral circulation). However, should the collateral circulation fail, the tissue cannot survive. And the starved area, usually triangular in shape, is described as infarcted (plugged off).

In another column, I'll tell you of successful efforts to prevent phlebitis and greatly lessen the dangers of embolization and infarction.

CHUMMY BIRD — "Jojo," pet 1209 E. State St., nibbles at some lips. The bird, about a year old, with a tempting wolf whistle. It is such phrases as "Hello, baby," "Hello, Jojo." He also drinks coffee even Clayton, Mo., where the steel union sponsored them. The tapes were fit into 15 minute broadcasts.

In each community the broadcasts were sponsored by a union or a citizens group for Kennedy or the local Democratic party. In each area a leading Negro—such as a minister, a labor leader, a doctor, a city councilman or a judge—preceded the taped celebrity on the air.

Such a program was advertised locally as "Hear Judge So-and-So and Mrs. Roosevelt."

IN ADDITION to these 22 stations, Walter Reuther's auto union spotted the broadcasts on its own 18 station network.

Thus the publicity apparatus was saturating all big Negro areas when on Monday, Oct. 31, the Rev. Martin Luther King was interviewed on WLBB in the Hotel Theresa. He spoke of his arrest in Georgia. He said as head of a clergyman group he had to be neutral. But he said of Jack Kennedy:

"I feel Sen. Kennedy took a very significant stand in this whole thing — (Rev. King's arrest). He took a courageous stand because Georgia happens to be one of the southern states he was sure to carry."

"His courage... in my unjust arrest meant he was risking the possibility of losing a lot of support in the white community... If a man would do this while the campaign was going on, it does demonstrate that, if elected, you can expect something forthright and positive..."

In a few hours this was integrated in the radio network programs Novik had begun preparing three months earlier. It swung the undecided Negro vote. And that helped to swing the election, says Sen. Morton.

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

Long after the departure of you-know-who permitted Harlem's Hotel Theresa to slip back into the obscurity of uncelebrated hotel service, there was a quiet drama there of far more importance to this nation and perhaps the world.

It could be said among sage observers that what occurred on the hotel's top floor in the three weeks before Election Day really helped Jack Kennedy win.

This is especially true if what the national Republican leader, Thurston Morton, said is politically accurate.

The senator from Kentucky surmised that Dick Nixon was badly hurt by the defection of the multi-million Negro vote.

There is on the Hotel Theresa's top story radio station WLBB. Its appeal is beamed at the huge New York Negro community. There is a score of other such stations throughout the land in cities with heavy Negro populations.

ONE OF THE MEN guiding WLBB's programs is an imaginative fellow by the name of Morris Novik. His agility in these matters is matched only by his coolness in emergencies—as when he was the last man off the sinking Andrea Doria.

Because of his talents, Novik has long been labor's own "Mr. Radio," the adviser on broadcasting to the AFL-CIO itself and much of the labor movement. He was therefore, with labor chief George Meany at the Los Angeles Democratic convention.

In the hours right after Lyndon Johnson's nomination, Novik had figured swiftly that the Republicans naturally would hit the southern Democrats on the "civil rights issue."

The New Yorker outlined a plan to Meany for a hard-hitting radio offensive in Negro communities in the last three weeks of the campaign.

Novik, also broadcast adviser to labor's political machinery, COPE, then contacted Mrs. Roosevelt, ex-Sen. Herbert Lehman, Senators Wayne Morse, Paul Douglas and Hubert Humphrey, John Kennedy and, after some discussion, Adlai Stevenson.

They agreed to tape record special speeches of 6½-8 minutes each. These were aimed at the Negroes who had been slipping away from the Democrats ever since Franklin Roosevelt.

THE SPEECHES were on the civil rights theme—arguing that the Republicans were at fault. The talks also appealed to the economic yearnings of the Negro community—on medical aid, housing, social security and minimum wage.

Then, at the cost of $750, these seven tapes were dispatched to 22 stations in such big Negro voting areas as Baltimore, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Los Angeles and

Only One Thing Can Change Ohio

There's an interesting and harmless little speculation afoot about Ohio's partisan makeup in the wake of the 1960 election that showed voters in this state bucking the trend in other industrial states.

What held Ohio safe for Richard Nixon while voters in states like Pennsylvania and Michigan were being swung into the Kennedy column?

Was it the competent management of the Republican state chairman Ray C. Bliss, who again is being talked about as a likely candidate for chairman of the Republican national committee?

Was it the spade work and the tireless efforts of the men and women who rang telephones and doorbells in behalf of the Nixon-Lodge ticket, either as Republican organization workers or as "volunteers"?

Was it the stabilizing force built into a state whose children grow up believing there is something special about Ohio no other state can match — a tradition of self-reliance that makes Ohioans immune to the political hypochondria that makes people think they are sick, sick and one swig of Political Panacea will make them well, well, well?

It's a little of these things and many more besides.

IF IT HAD to be summed up it could be said that Ohio is normally disposed to line up with moderation in politics.

It is not, however, disposed to line up blindly with Republicans as many of the Democrats' strongholds line up behind the Democrats. There is nothing "solid" about Ohio Republicanism, as there is about Democracy in the Solid South.

Ohio drifted into the Truman camp by a narrow margin in 1948. It drifted to Wilson in his first election, thanks to the splitting of the Republican vote between Roosevelt and Taft. In Wilson's second race, it went with him again, and it went with Franklin D. Roosevelt the first three times deserting him finally in 1944.

Ohioans are inclined toward independence, almost to the point of fickleness. A Democratic governor like Mike DiSalle cannot deliver the state any more than a Republican governor like C. William O'Neill. The same state that substituted DiSalle for O'Neill can turn around and put O'Neill on the Supreme Court against AFL-CIO opposition while putting DiSalle behind the 8-ball by looping off the Democratic majority in the legislature and also depriving him of the satisfaction of delivering his state to John Kennedy, Democratic presidential nominee.

IT ALL ADDS up to an interesting and harmless speculation about Ohio's partisan makeup.

The speculation is this:

That if Ohio Republicans could always match the effort put forth by Democrats and their union labor allies, they would never lose.

They have lost only when Democrats had something special going for them like the Roosevelt spend-and-elect formula, special union pressure and the Cuyahoga County steamroller.

Whenever Republicans come close to matching the efforts of the opposition, as they did this year, they win Ohio. It's that simple. They lose only by default.

The Rivals Meet

While President-elect Kennedy's peacemaking visit with Vice President Nixon is unprecedented, the need for it is likewise unprecedented in modern times.

And while it is justifiably hailed as a gentlemanly and salesmanlike gesture, it is also a politically wise move.

Sen. Kennedy fought his campaign on the subject of the national purpose. But having won the presidency with only a handful of popular votes, he cannot rely exclusively upon his own supporters or his own party to guide him in deciding what the national purpose should be.

Thus he needs bipartisan support as perhaps no other president in United States history needed it. The nation has been divided before, but never halved so dramatically as it was last Tuesday.

The ultimately tragedy for the United States would be for it to lose all sense of national purpose because the half that has taken control was unconcerned about what the other half thinks.

Sen. Kennedy apparently is aware of this. All citizens — those who voted for him and those who voted for his opponent — can be glad that he is.

His self-initiated visit with Mr. Nixon is in line with the spirit of what all voters want in the aftermath of a presidential election — a sense of unity for the times ahead.

Salem vs. West Branch?

It is interesting to note that Salem and West Branch high school football teams tied for 27th position in the state-wide ratings by the Associated Press yesterday.

Both teams ended the season with 9-1 records posted at Reilly Stadium here where the Quakers played on Friday nights and the West Branch Warriors on Saturdays. It was a neighborly gesture for the board of education to allow the new West Branch District to use Reilly Stadium.

Our congratulations go to both schools for good football seasons. Perhaps sometime in the future the schedule will call for a game between Salem and West Branch.

Safety is the top concern with automotive engineers and should be with drivers and pedestrians.

A tip to pessimists who expect to put life in the party — stay away!

A Texas girl learned to sing by calling hogs. Others learn hogcalling by trying to sing.

There really must be gold bricks, judging from the cost of building a home.

A 90-year-old Kentucky man has used the telephone only once. My gosh, when is he going to hang up?

Once Over

Our man for secretary of the treasury is Joe Kennedy, the president-elect's dad. He could make up all the deficits, keep the budget balanced and fight dollar depreciation as few men in the country could. With him on the job we could shake off the fear that Europe would get too much of our gold.

The country had better go easy on those election recounts. America will really have a war on its hands if it takes the victory away from Jack Kennedy.

The street riots in Tokyo, the Congo and Algeria would be minor league in comparison. There are always charges of election frauds and in a race as close as this one everybody tries to get into the act.

If by an outside chance an electric-eye camera should be revealed as a necessity in the electoral college, it would be better for national peace if we let Kennedy occupy the White House Monday through Wednesday and shoulder all the blame for world troubles, and allow Nixon to live there and take the hard knocks through Saturday. Jacqueline and Pat could take over on Sunday.

In naming Allan Dulles to stay on the job as head of the Central Intelligence Agency, Jack Kennedy indicated he wanted to be kept up to date on Russian plans to butter him up by using greeting cards and congratulations notes as secret weapons.

In keeping J. Edgar Hoover at the post he may have indicated that, because of youthfulness of the new administration, he warmly supports Hoover's constant attention to juvenile problems.

Kennedy will be America's first "From Palm Beach to White House" president. He is a chief executive not afraid of being photographed in bathing trunks. And he will have the best suntan ever to figure in an inaugural.

HENRY FORD I must be turning over in his grave at the news that the new president of his company is a great reader of history books. Henry once got world headlines when he said studying history was the bunk and a waste of time.

Th history he was talking about wet out with Lizzie.

There's so much history being made these days that it's coming off production lines just like autos, and in more shapes, sizes and colors.

The Kennedy-Nixon vote was closer than the Maris-Mantle player vote. Amazing thing is that Jack Kennedy, with his bushy head, should win only by a hair. The year 1960 will go down as a great one for the Kennedys, the Pittsburgh Pirates and leprechauns.

America's Competitive Struggle

By Dr. GEORGE S. BENSON

One day recently the owner of a small hardware store in the outskirts of Cleveland drove his pickup truck to a warehouse in the big city's wholesale district. He wanted to buy 50 spools of barbed wire.

On the loading platform he saw two stacks of barbed wire, one stack with several hundred spools, the other with only eight or ten. He approached the big stack of barbed wire. A shipping label showed that it had been manufactured in Dusseldorf, Germany. The small stack showed the brand name of a leading Cleveland steel mill.

The store owner examined the imported and the home-produced barbed wire. The quality was identical. Only the price was different.

The barbed wire made in Dusseldorf was $40 a ton cheaper than the Cleveland product; 20 per cent less per spool. The hardware merchant was amazed. He knew that the Dusseldorf barbed wire had traveled more than 3,000 miles. He shook his head in disbelief — and bought 50 spools of barbed wire made in Dusseldorf, Germany.

THIS EPISODE could be duplicated in many American warehouses and stores. Cameras made in Japan and Germany, transistor radios and other electronic equipment manufactured abroad, plywood, men's and women's clothing, typewriters, chinaware, and an unending list of products made in foreign countries are jamming the showroom floors and shelves all over America. And they are taking away business from American manufacturers who cannot meet the price competition.

A midwestern company which has been in business for 58 years making fencing nails and wire, closed down one plant primarily because of its inability to meet foreign competition.

Another steel mill which used to ship 25,000 tons of barbed wire sold only 220 tons in 1958. To the employees of these mills, foreign competition is a very real and pressing problem.

NOT ONLY ARE the foreign-made products taking away business in the domestic American market, they are taking away business in the world market. The most significant fact is that we are exporting jobs. It is simple arithmetic:

When foreign-made goods are bought by Americans we are supporting and creating jobs in foreign countries; and when American-made goods are left on the shelves because of their high prices, we are destroying jobs here in America.

Our basic trouble is that rising labor costs in America have pushed up prices so that our American goods are being priced out of the markets.

There are other factors involved, but this is the big one.

America's rising industrial productivity has not been passed along to reduce prices of our products. And yet, in Europe, Japan and some Asian nations competitive products are being made at much lower cost — so much lower that they can be shipped across oceans and still sold, at good profit, at considerably lower prices than the American product.

IN RECENT MONTHS I have talked to many leading manufacturers about this problem. It is actually threatening the whole

These manufacturers tell me we can catch up with foreign competition in a few years if production costs can be held in line.

They have showed me their profit statements. On the average, American manufacturers are making less than six per cent profit on each sales dollar. If all this profit were to be cut out, many foreign-made products would still sell 15 to 20 per cent cheaper than American-made. So profits are not causing the difficulty.

THE SOLUTION to this problem which is jeopardizing the jobs of millions of Americans and actually endangering the economic security of all of us — is for organized labor to take a clear, long-range view of what's happening, and then pitch in with our industrial management to regain our lost position in the world markets.

Everybody's economic welfare then would gradually improve and we would overcome a grave danger to our whole economic system. Yes, genuine cooperation, with elimination of feather-bedding, without any cut in wages, and without longer hours.

SIDE GLANCES

The Big Question

By DAVID LAWRENCE

People of World Wondering About Kennedy

All over the world people are wondering what kind of president of the United States the 43-year-old senator from Massachusetts — John F. Kennedy — is going to make.

The newspapers abroad refer to his youth as both an advantage and a disadvantage. They argue that a young man has flexibility, rather than rigidity and that there is an inclination not to hesitate but to be bold and assertive.

There is wonder, on the other hand, how the new president will get along with the older and more experienced men in world affairs who head the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, West Germany and the Soviet Union.

The truth is that John F. Kennedy is today a mystery to the leaders of the other countries of the world — an unknown quantity. The comments of the European newspapers on the whole reflect also their unfamiliarity with public opinion in America. Indeed some of the so-called liberal newspapers are already expressing the hope that Red China will be recognized and that some of the firm positions taken by the Eisenhower administration will be abandoned.

It is natural for some Britishers to worry about keeping their colony in Hong Kong, with their big investments there and this is perhaps one of the reasons why Britain has from the start recognized the Communist regime in Peking. But the recognition of Red China by the United States could mean the collapse of the whole allied position in Japan, Formosa, the Philippines and Southeast Asia, and could bring on the very war in the Far East that nobody in the West wants to see happen.

THE SPOKESMEN of the "left wing" in Britain, moreover, are already expecting President-elect Kennedy to take a softer line toward Russia and to pour out more American billions than ever before to all parts of the world. They are in for a surprise.

What most of the editorial writers in other countries do not realize is that in the United States there is a substantial agreement on the fundamental principles of our foreign policy and that, while there may be a change in method coming and an attempt to set forth American ideals more vigorously, the end result will not be any real shift in the direction of American policies abroad.

The mere fact that the heads of governments and the newspapers overseas are in such an inquiring mood about the new president of the United States proves how important America is to them all. Some newspapers and officials abroad speak of America as having elect not only a new president but "a new leader of the free world." Certainly it doesn't look as if the "prestige" of the United States is so low, after all, despite the disparaging speeches made on this point during the recent campaign.

Perhaps the most important aftermath of the election is that there are so many pressures for a change in American foreign policy being built up abroad. Nor is the gravity of the whole situation entirely confined to the diplomatic policy aspects.

THE GUARDIAN, an independent daily in Manchester, England, says:

"Looking the facts full in the face, one cannot avoid a fear that Sen. Kennedy, when he takes office on Jan. 20, may well have a major currency crisis on his hands even before the next Berlin hurricane blows up."

"If the confidence crisis which is now beginning to develop is not quickly stopped, it can produce the most disruptive crisis which the West has experienced since the last war."

This impression, of course, is due to the costly programs on the social welfare side which Sen. Kennedy promised in his campaign speeches.

The British have been reading that there was a singular lack of demagoguery in the American campaign. Someday they will have to be told the truth — that there was considerable demagoguery, after all, and that Mr. Kennedy isn't going to carry out a good many of the promises he made to spend money for social welfare which could upset the national budget and the position of the dollar or the price of gold.

A financial columnist in the Financial Times of London thinks a currency crisis may be coming but believes it can be averted. He says:

"It is not difficult to see that, if the decline in world confidence in the dollar were to continue during this phase, Washington might find itself coming under strong pressure to take quick decisions . . . however, the fact that Sen. Kennedy has stressed that he has no thoughts about devaluing the dollar may itself help to avert a flight from it by private and central-bank holders in the period before he takes office. . . ."

ONE THING is clear — there is urgent need for immediate contact by President-elect Kennedy with President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Treasury Anderson.

Early meetings and decisions are necessary if a real crisis in the dollar abroad is to be avoided. There are many things to be discussed between the outgoing and incoming administrations that concern the flow of gold, the unfavorable balance of payments between the United States and other countries, and the overall effect on the price of the dollar in the currency exchanges of the world.

The K-9 Corps

By JERRY BENNETT

Police dogs are putting extra bite into U. S. law enforcement.

Within the last four years, police departments of at least 11 major cities have drafted trained German shepherds and Doberman Pinschers to control unruly crowds and chase criminals.

Several other police forces are either training K-9 corps or plan to do so in the near future. This new enthusiasm for police dogs stems from their effectiveness in immediately reducing a city's crime rate.

Baltimore started the canine street patrol trend in 1956. Before then police dogs had been used only for guarding military installations, atomic energy laboratories and department stores. Within a year Baltimore's crime rate dropped almost seven per cent.

Richmond, Va., put dogs on the beat in the summer of 1958. Police report that nine months later crime had been reduced 20 per cent.

WASHINGTON POLICE, who started using the dogs only last April, credit them with bringing law and order to a neighborhood where crime had jumped almost 60 per cent. At the end of May there were 40 less crimes of violence there than during the previous month.

Other cities with similar praise for the police dog corps are Atlanta, Ga.; Houston, Tex.; Springfield and St. Louis, Mo.; St. Paul, Minn.; Salt Lake City, Utah; Alexandria, Va., and Rochester, N. Y.

Delaware's State Police also have a K-9 corps. Cities now training police dogs include Amarillo, Tex., and Denver, Colo.

SGT. WILLIAM C. WRIGHT, head of the Washington Police Canine Training Division, says:

"Since starting our dog corps, we have received letters and visits from police officials throughout the country who are interested in the program. The use of dogs for street patrol seems to be the coming thing in police work."

Dogs are used mainly for breaking up hostile crowds and chasing culprits who flee on foot. Like the famed bloodhounds used by county sheriffs, police dogs are also excellent trackers.

Wright explains that the secret of their success in keeping the peace is mainly psychological. Nobody likes the idea of getting bitten by a 100-pound animal. "And culprits usually know they can't outrun the dogs, either," he says.

SOME OF THE Washington dogs have been clocked at 35 miles per hour and Wright believes they could move faster in an emergency.

The dogs always patrol their beats on a leash. But contrary to popular opinion, they are not vicious, Wright says. They bite or give chase only on command.

They are also taught to halt as soon as their quarry stops running and not bother him as long as he stands still. If he continues to run, the dog is supposed to knock him down and then hold him by the arm until the policeman arrives.

The only time a police dog will attack a man who is standing still, is when he draws a gun or knife. Then the dog throws away the rule book.

Washington's police dogs go through a 14-week training course. Each dog is assigned to a particular policeman and taught to obey no one but him. The dogs live with their masters.

Wright says it costs about 50 cents a day to feed each dog. Annual veterinary bills per dog run about $35. All members of the Washington corps have been donated.

European countries have been using dogs for patrol work since 1895.

France was the first to equip its police forces with man's best friend, Germany followed.

Today London boasts the world's largest K-9 corps with 272 dogs.

SIGHT FOR THE NEAR-BLIND — Unique eyeglasses have six telescopic lenses. Called "space lens," the glasses were developed by Dr. William Feinbloom of New York to help the country's 600,000 near-blind regain functional vision. The three telescopic units are set at an angle of 25 degrees to each other, one for the left, one center and one right. Reports say that patients fitted with the new glasses can for the first time do factory or office work requiring close vision, read mail and newspapers and watch television.

FIFTEEN MEMBERS of the Town and Country Club were entertained at a coverd dinner recently at the home of Mrs. Francis Mullin of Morris Road.

The guests were Mrs. Walter Mullen of Morris Road, Mrs. Veda Tullis of Rogers and Mrs. Roger Headley of Hanoverton.

Pirate bingo prizes were shared by Mrs. Headley, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Tullis and Mrs. Norma Ketchum.

The Dec 8 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edwin Copeland of Hanoverton, with Mrs. Ketchum as assistant hostess. A gift exchange is planned.

HYMNS OF PRAISE and Thanksgiving from the Hymnbook of the Ages was the theme of the devotions presented by Miss Sara Walker at a recent meeting of the July-August Group of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church in the home of Mrs. Michael Womner.

Mrs. L. S. Holinger presided. Mrs. Maurice Sandrock, program chairman, conducted the topic, "Going and Growing Together," from Conversations on Ecumenical Missions.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. John Wilms. Sixteen were in attendance.

The Dec. 7 meeting will be at 1:15 p.m. in the home of Miss Elma Auld of E. 7th St.

S&S CLUB members were recent guests in the home of Mrs. William Ingledue of E. 5th St.

Prizes in the "500" games were shared by Mrs. Donald Mayer, Mrs. Ray Fultz and Mrs. Jim Phillips.

Lunch was served by the hostess.

The group will have a gift exchange at a Christmas dinner party Dec. 13 in Grady's Restaurant. Members will hold their next regular club meeting Jan. 10 in the home of Mrs. Donald Warren of Mound St.

FOLLOWING two recent Salem Senior High School football games, members of the school band enjoyed social hours and refreshments in the homes of Holland Cameron of Beechwood Road and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Murphy of W. 8th St. Mrs. Elizabeth Underwood and Mrs. Albert Johnson assisted the Murphys.

ELECTION of officers highlighted the regular meeting of the King's Daughters Class of Green, evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Davis of RD 5, Salem.

Those selected for the coming year are: President, Mrs. Lewis Brown; first vice president, Mrs. Raymond Hendricks; second vice president, Mrs. Chester Pettit; secretary, Mrs. John Harbin; assistant secretary, Mrs. Raymond Rhodes; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Davis; and assistant treasurer, Mrs. Fred Puttkamer.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Ralph Hendricks.

Members discussed giving Thanksgiving baskets to shut-ins. Guest speaker was Mrs. T. P. Laughner of Leetonia, who showed slides of Liberia, Africa, where her son-in-law and daughter are serving as missionaries.

Mrs. James Justice and Mrs. Ralph Hendrick will be hostesses at the Dec. 12 Christmas party. Member are to bring a 50-cent gift for the exchange.

THE EMMA Naffziger Missionary Society of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church of North Georgetown held its monthly meeting at the church Monday night with 22 in attendance.

The topic, "Thanksgiving Diary" was presented by Mrs. Jesse Galbreath. Those taking part were Mrs. Vera Stackhouse and Mrs. Keith Griffith.

Mrs. David Bauman presented devotion taken from Timothy, Ephesians and Psalms.

Mrs. Homer Creager presided over the business meeting at which time reports were given by Mrs. Cecil Boone and Mrs. Griffith from a conference held Oct. 25 in New Philadelphia.

Plans were made to send boxes to boys in the service, and cards were sent to the sick and shut-ins of the membership.

The meeting closed with the missionary benediction. Hostesses for the evening were Miss Birdena Berger and Mrs. Dale Barnett. The next meeting will be Dec. 12. A gift exchange will take place at this time.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Ralph Snyder, Mrs. Charles Sommers and Mrs. Gertrude Barges. The topic, "We Light the Candles," will be presented by the executive board.

LOIS ZIMMERMAN Group of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met recently in the Methodist Church, when Mrs. William Snowball, guest speaker, told of her recent stay in Birmingham, England. She was presented by Mrs. Lloyd Gordon, program chairman.

Mrs. Cora Smith presided at the business session. Plans were made for a silent auction and a case role dinner for the Christmas meeting Dec. 8 in the church and for serving the School of Missions Jan. 29.

Mrs. Anna Schuck presented the devotion on the subject, "Thanksgiving."

Serving on the social committee were Mrs. Lester Baldinger, Mrs. Melvin York and Mrs. Orville Hoover. An arrangement of yellow mums graced the refreshment table.

HANNAH GALLAGHER Group members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met recently for a dessert luncheon in the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Cecil Baxter, vice president, presided at the business session and led the devotion, using the theme, "Togetherness."

The program topic, "Take the Name of Jesus With You," was presented from the study book by Mrs. N. L. Reich.

Mrs. Paul Holwick and Mrs. Raymond Mott, hostesses, arranged the refreshment table, which was decorated with a centerpiece of fall flowers.

The group will hold a coverd birthday dinner Dec. 14 at 12:30 p.m. in the church. Hostesses will be Mrs. William Milhoan, Mrs. William Siddle and Mrs. Alfred Stratton.

Mrs. Mary Bell will be devotion-al leader, and Mrs. Baxter will have charge of the program. Instead of having a gift exchange, each member is asked to bring a donation of fifty cents to prepare a basket for a needy family.

REV. CONSTANCE GOUGH was guest speaker when the Jane Crooks Group of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met recently at the church, "Christian" taken from the book of Ephesians, was her topic.

Mrs. Fred Smith presided at the meeting, with 12 members present. "Thankful hearts" was the devotion-al theme of Mrs. William Wright.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Chester Geist were named to call on the shut-ins in December. Plans were made to care for a needy family at Christmas.

An arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums graced the table when Mrs. Ross Helman and Mrs. Howard Moulton served lunch.

A birthday coverd dinner and Christmas party was planned for Dec. 14 at 12:30 p.m. at the church.

HOWARD PARDEE talked on problems confronting concert band when he spoke Monday night before the Salem Senior High School Band Mothers Club at the school.

Mrs. David Keller presided over the business session, with 21 members in attendance. There will be no December meeting. The club will meet next on Jan. 9 in the school.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My boy friend and I were at a movie the other night and we sat behind a couple of women who kept talking and laughing. They were not paying any attention to the picture and everyone around them was giving them dirty looks, which they ignored.

After 15 minutes, my boy friend tapped one of them on the shoulder and said very politely, "If you two blabber-mouths don't shut up I'm going to throw you out."

One of the women answered, "We paid our money, the same as you — and if you don't like it YOU can move."

My boy friend lost his temper and slammed her over the head with a box of caramel corn. She yelled bloody murder and the manager came running. He took our names and made the four of us leave the theater. (He refunded our money).

Today my boy friend got a notice in the mail saying he must appear in court. The charge is assault and battery.

The woman was not injured. What can we do?—NEED ADVICE.

Dear Need: Get a lawyer. A person need not be rendered unconscious in order to sue for assault and battery.

Noisy people in a theater should be reported to an usher. When a patron takes matters into his own hands as your fiance did, the fight becomes personal.

A theater patron has the right to expect peace and quiet. When he doesn't get it, it's the responsibility of the management to take steps.

More Than Platonic

Dear Ann: You may decide this problem stems from pure jealousy and maybe you're right.

Our closest friends in this rather small community are a couple who have a great deal of charm and intellectual appeal. I'm sure the woman's interest in US, however, is my husband.

Things have reached the point where every casual hello or goodbye is a kiss on the lips. In between, she manages many hugs, pats, winks and pecks on the cheek. She also likes to sit on his lap.

I'd like to make it clear that SHE is the aggressive one. My husband, like most attractive men, is none too adroit at dodging her attentions, however.

A rift would be awkward as we are a "set foursome." What can I do to get her to keep her lips and hands off my husband? — H. L. C.

Dear H.L.C.: Don't demean yourself by asking her to "keep away" from your man. You'll sound like a scared wife and she'll be greatly complimented at your display of insecurity.

Tell your husband and you wouldn't dream of letting another man become so familiar with you because you belong to HIM. Let him know you'd appreciate equal consideration.

Super Salesman

Dear Ann: My father is a very nice guy but he embarrasses me. He's a barber, and a good one, but every guy who comes into this house gets a sales talk and a business card.

The pitch goes like this: "My Lord, who cut your hair? You look like the barber was trying to get even with you for something. If you want a GOOD haircut . . ."

and then out comes his business card. I've asked him to stop it but he says "it pays to advertise." I told him I was going to write for your opinion. He said "okay" but he made me enclose this card — for your husband. Thank you. — EMMA.

Dear Emma: A commercial pitch to guests in your home is in extremely bad taste. Thanks for the card but we live in Chicago and it would be inconvenient for my husband to go to Little Rock for his haircuts.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Choir At Methodist

Church Names Officers

Mrs. A. W. Kilman was elected president of the choir of the First Methodist Church at a recent meeting. She succeeds William Keck. John Keller was re-elected secretary, and Orein Naragon was re-elected treasurer.

The choir will have new robes in the coming year due to the generosity of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The Unity Bible Class has made a gift of money toward the purchase of new chairs for the choir loft.

Choir members rehearse every Thursday night to provide music for Sunday services and special occasions.

Plans Holiday Wedding

Miss Jeanette Firestone

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Firestone of Columbiana announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jeanette, to John William Sweitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sweitzer of New Waterford.

The ceremony will take place Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, at the Grace United Church of Christ at Gallion, with Rev. Donald J. Voelm officiating.

Miss Firestone is a graduate of Fairfield High School and Youngstown School of Cosmetology.

Mr. Sweitzer attended the New Waterford school and is employed by the M & W Electrical Refractory in East Palestine.

Betrothal Announced

Miss Kaye Christopher

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Miller of Hanoverton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Kaye Christopher, to John Magyaros, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Magyaros Jr. of Alliance.

Miss Christopher was graduated from United High School, Class of 1960, and now is attending National Beauty College in Canton.

Mr. Magyaros was graduated from Alliance High School in 1957. He attended the University of Cincinnati and is now employed by the Electric Furnace Co. A June wedding is being planned.

Deaths and Funerals

Miss Elma A. Rauch

LEETONIA — Miss Elma A. Rauch, 85, of 2218 Elm St., Youngstown, died at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Youngstown North Side Hospital following 10 days illness.

Born May 22, 1875 in Unity, she was the daughter of Armenius F. and Martha Forney Rauch.

A resident here 60 years, before going to Youngstown in 1947, she was an 1893 graduate of Leetonia High School and attended Kent State University.

A retired school teacher, she started her career in Franklin Square 66 years ago, and was principal of the South Side School here for 50 years.

She was a member of the Richard Brown Memorial Methodist Church of Youngstown and Order of Eastern Star of Leetonia.

Survivors include a brother, Provost R. Rauch of Youngstown, and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Woods Funeral Home, Rev. J. D. Black of the Brown Memorial Church will officiate, with burial in Oakdale Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday afternoon and evening.

Faculty At Lisbon Plans Variety Show

LISBON — Members of the Lisbon Teachers Association are planning a variety show Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Lisbon High School auditorium.

Proceeds from the event will go to the student loan scholarship fund which the teachers began last year.

Teachers from the three schools will present short comedies as follows: "All Mixed Up," High School; "Newspaper Nightmare," Lincoln School; and "Over the Back Fence," McKinley School.

In addition to the plays, there will be special musical numbers. The Columbiana County champion 4-H square dancers will perform.

Schools

proved it 93-2 and it passed the Senate 34-0.

An estimated 10,000 white pupils stayed away from city schools Tuesday, the second day of efforts to integrate two local schools. Many absentees took part in rowdy demonstrations that brought 11 arrests, all white persons.

Louisiana's U.S. senators and congressmen were asked to attend the closed session and help halt federal intervention.

The resolution calling for their appearance was aimed at U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright, who issued the integration order and thwarted segregation acts of legislators with restraining orders.

An informant who asked not to be identified, said the question of asking Louisiana's congressional delegation to institute impeachment proceedings against Wright is one of the moves under consideration.

Segregation leader John Garrett called for Wright's arrest at a meeting of the Citizens Council Tuesday night. Garrett, chairman of the joint legislative committee on segregation, also called for the arrest of U.S. marshals who escorted four Negro girls to school Tuesday.

Garrett recommended full interposition, a legal maneuver through which the legislature would put state sovereignty between the federal government and the people to block integration.

Some 6,000 persons attending the meeting of the council, a segregation group, shouted approval.

Mounted police held shouting demonstrators in check as four 6-year-old Negro girls entered the two white elementary schools Tuesday. Three of the girls spent the day at McDonogh 19 school, which was ringed with 125 patrolmen and mounted officers. School officials reported only 20 of the 467 students enrolled were in school.

Kennel Club Plans For Holiday Party

Columbiana County Kennel Club will hold its annual Christmas party Dec. 7 at Valley Golf Club, Columbiana.

Cocktails at 7 p.m. will be followed by a smorgasbord dinner. Reservations may be made until Dec. 1 with Mrs. R. G. Paul, 238 Park Place, Columbiana.

Lisbon Departments To Move To New Office

LISBON — The water, sewer and cemetery departments are expected to move into their new office in Village Hall this week, Deane Beck, member of the Board of Public Affairs, reports.

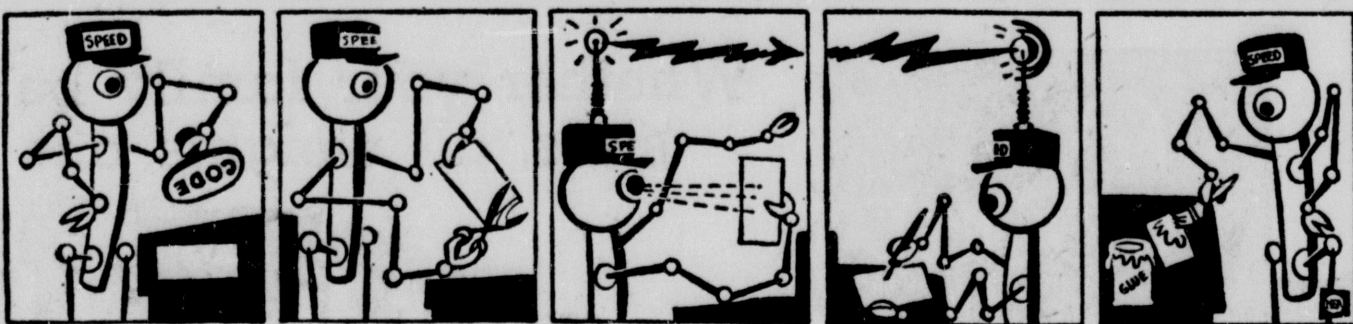

Work on the 20-by-20-foot office was started last summer at an anticipated cost of $4,400. The office, located just north of the board's present quarters, is ready for occupancy.

1960 Tax Returns In County Revised

LISBON — County Auditor Kenneth Bell reported that tax returns for 1960 collected in 1961 have been revised and the valuations computed and are open for inspection in his office.

Bell said this was a notice that must be advertised each year under section 5715.17 of the revised Ohio code and has nothing to do with the reappraisal currently in progress.

The Board of Revision, composed of Bell, Treasurer Vincent Judge and G. William Brokaw, prosecutor, will hear complaints against any valuation Monday at 10 a.m. of the supreme allied commander of NATO for Europe. Throughout NATO's 12-year history the supreme commander has been an American officer; at present it is Gen. Lauris Norstad. The expectation is that an American will continue to hold this assignment.

Although Kennedy's views on the problem will be sought as soon as possible, he may not want to express an opinion until after he has selected the men who will be his secretary of state and secretary of defense.

Welfare Department's Report Is Submitted

LISBON — Columbiana County welfare department gained one new child during October, according to Robert Bycroft, county welfare director. During the month the department accepted nine welfare children but released eight.

At the beginning of November the department had 197 welfare children, 137 are in boarding homes, 26 in adopted homes, nine in free homes, four in wage homes, six in institutions, 11 with relatives and four are with their parents, Bycroft said.

Stolen Car Found; Parts Are Missing

Police recovered a stolen car early this morning approximately three hours after the theft had been reported.

An auto belonging to Richard Jones, 608 Arch St., was found at about 2:46 a.m. on N. Howard Ave. The battery and carburetor of the vehicle had been stolen.

The car had been taken from a parking lot at the rear of the Terminal Tavern on N. Ellsworth Ave. The theft was reported to police at 11:33 p.m. Tuesday.

Burglar Gets $400 at Calcutta Establishment

Burglars forced open a safe at the Hitt Builders Co., Inc., at Calcutta Tuesday night or early today and escaped with about $400.

The burglary was discovered at 7 this morning. Deputy Sheriff Robert Beresford is investigating.

Dan Hitt, manager, said entry was gained by forcing open garage doors. The intruder then kicked the panel out of an interior door to reach the office where the small safe is located. Several other exterior doors showed signs that the intruders first sought unsuccessfully to open them, he said.

The burglars pried open the safe door, using a small wrecking bar taken from the store's tool display. Some checks were left behind. Hitt said it has not been determined if any merchandise was taken.

The store is located on the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd. on the edge of Calcutta.

Settlement Reached In $102,000 Lawsuit

LISBON — A settlement out of court was reached Tuesday in the $102,000 personal injury suit filed by Ross Snively of Lisbon Rd. in behalf of his son, James Snively, 8, against Joseph Zehentbauer of Hanoverton Rd.

Snively had asked $100,000 for injuries to his son and $2,000 for expenses. His son ran into the street March 19, 1956, and was struck by the defendant's auto.

The trial began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

FIRE CALLS ANSWERED

Firemen answered four calls Tuesday.

They were to the rear of 849 S. Lincoln, leaves and grass at 3:39 p.m.; rear of 1136 E. State St., leaves and brush at 3:43 p.m.; 337 W. 37th St., leaves at 8:11 p.m.; Painter Rd., grass fire at 11:55 p.m.

In addition, a call was answered at 12:40 this morning to a leaf fire at 805 S. Lincoln.

Nagasaki, an expert said—for Rosenberg for relay to the Soviet Union. Greenglass was arrested in 1950.

The spy ring allegedly was headed by Rosenberg, but masterminded by Anatoli Yakovlev, a former Soviet vice consul in New York. He disappeared before the espionage ring was uncovered.

The ring also reportedly had connections with Klaus Fuchs, the British scientist, who served a prison term in England. Fuchs, after his release, disappeared behind the Iron Curtain.

Greenglass' wife, Ruth, was named a co-conspirator but not a defendant at the time Greenglass was arrested. They have two children.

Feather Co. Officials Feted At Reception

Officers of the William Feather Company which recently purchased the Layden-Hammell lithographers company here were entertained at a reception Tuesday evening at the Salem Golf Club.

The dinner was sponsored by the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce and the Salem Area Industrial Corporation.

William Feather, Jr., of Cleveland, president of the firm, responded to words of welcome by local citizens and introduced those of his staff, including William Enyart, manager of the Salem plant; Vice Presidents William Mackey, James G. Cartwright and Joseph Ondrey and Secretary-Treasurer Ralph Niderst.

Chamber President Walter B. Null and SAICD President Archie Bricker presided.

Gas Firm Improves Its Pipeline System

Work is under way on a $26,500 Ohio Fuel Gas Co. construction project to improve natural gas service in Salem, it was announced today.

D. W. Smith, Salem division manager for Ohio Fuel, said a new town border station is being constructed at the Indiana Blvd. - Route 62 intersection on the west side of town, and 245 feet of new pipeline — six and eight inches in diameter — is being laid to tie the new station into the Salem pipeline system.

At the new station, natural gas will be cleaned and measured and its pressure will be regulated for distribution into the Salem distribution pipeline system, Smith said.

George L. Ramsey, Lisbon contractor, is installing equipment at the new station for Ohio Fuel. Work is expected to be completed about Dec. 1, Smith said.

Board

In 1961 was $24.40 per $1,000, .30 less than this year, it was reported.

Walter Taylor, board member reported on the Ohio School Board Assn. meeting he attended recently in Columbus, along with Supt. Russell Armitage.

The board authorized payment of $50 in expenses for Theodore Greener, high school band director, to attend the mid-west band directors' conference in Chicago, Dec. 13-16.

Supt. Armitage reported upon the testing programs going on in the school. He also commented on the outdated maps in the elementary buildings and was instructed by the board to ascertain how much new maps would cost. The board plans to set up a three-year program to replace the old maps.

The superintendent also requested a survey be made to find out the cost of sound-proofing the present band room. The village cost for drapes for the gymnasium will be only $473 as the state will provide matching funds, it was reported.

The board authorized the purchase of two loads of slag for the Lincoln School playground.

The board refused the Lions Club request to hold a wrestling show in the high school gymnasium one Wednesday each month. Basketball commitments for the winter months were cited.

The board will appear in a panel discussion at the Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Assn. meeting on Jan. 9. Members also will attend the joint session of the school boards of Leetonia, Columbiana, Lisbon and East Palestine Jan. 24 in Columbiana.

The board's next meeting will be Tuesday, Dec. 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Koenreich posed a question as to disposition of $90,000 the city had borrowed to finance the parking lot. He said $3,600 interest on the note will be due June 1, 1961, and, since there is no parking lot as yet, it would have to be paid out of the General Fund. He said outside of the General Fund, the only means of paying the note is through parking lot income.

Rusty Tomlinson, director of the Memorial Building, reported on the recent meeting of the Ohio Recreation Association he attended. Tomlinson was elected Association secretary for 1961.

Menu Hit For a Healthy Appetite

For a delightful post climax to an evening of fun and frolic invite the gang over for an informal supper.

And or just such occasions, here is a delicious — but simple — menu to please all ... including the cook.

With the exception of the rice and coffee, the other items may be prepared well in advance. As for these, they're a "cinch" to fix when you use packages precooked rice and instant coffee.

Creamed Lobster with Rice

1-3 cups packaged pre-cooked rice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/3 cups boiling water, 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup, 1/2 cup milk, 1 cup (6 ounce can) lobster, drained and flaked, dash of pepper.

Add packaged pre-cooked rice and salt to boiling water in saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 5 minutes.

Meanwhile, combine soup and milk in saucepan. Heat, stirring occasionally. Add lobster and pepper. Mix and heat thoroughly. Arrange rice in serving dish and top with the creamed lobster. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Foursome Vegetable Salad

1 package (3 ounces) lemon-flavored gelatin, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup boiling water, 1 cup cold water, 1 1/2 to 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon grated onion, 1/2 cup diced celery, 1/4 cup chopped green pepper, 1 cup diced cucumber.

Dissolve gelatin and salt in boiling water. Add cold water, vinegar, and grated onion. Chill until remaining ingredients.

Pour into individual molds or a 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise. Makes 6 servings.

English Pork Pie

(American Version)

Place 1 1/2 pounds lean, boneless pork, cut in cubes, in 2 cups water; add onion and 2 chicken bouillon cubes. Simmer, covered, 30 minutes.

Soften 1 envelope unflavored gelatin in 1/4 cup water, add strained hot pork stock and stir to dissolve. Meantime, make crust by using 2 packages pie crust mix. Set aside 1/4 of dough for upper crust. Roll out remaining dough, shape to fit round deep casserole.

Place meat in crust along with 1/2 cup stock. Cut large round hole in center of rolled upper crust, fit over top of casserole, carefully sealing dough around edge. Bake in 350 degree F. oven for 2 hours; during first hour, lay piece of waxed paper over top crust to prevent browning too quickly.

Remove waxed paper, brush crust with beaten egg. Fifteen minutes before removing pie from oven, make gravy of remaining stock, blending 2 tablespoons of butter with 2 tablespoons flour.

Slowly stir in 1 1/2 cups stock. Cook until thickened and smooth. Pour into hole in upper crust. Serve hot or cold.

Brown Sugar Cookies

(Yield: 3 dozen large cookies)

Two-thirds cup shortening, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract, 1 1/2 cups light brown sugar, 1 egg, 2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1-cup milk.

Combine the first 4 ingredients and stir until fluffy. Gradually blend in brown sugar. Beat in egg. Add flour alternately with milk. Drop dough from a tablespoon onto lightly greased cookie sheets. Top each with a raisin or half of a pecan. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 minutes or until edges have lightly browned.

Remove from oven and transfer to a wire cooler. Store in a tightly closed cookie jar or box.

Tangy Cranberries Return

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

The fresh cranberry is with us again. What's tried and true, what's new in using this tangy little fruit?

Is there any good cook left who hasn't yet tried one of the raw cranberry relishes that Americans have taken to their heart? Cranberry jelly and sauce still go on our holiday tables with roast turkey. But nowadays chances are that families will also want the relish—that delightful basic combination of 2 cups of fresh berries coarsely ground with an orange (peel and all) and sweetened with 1 cup of sugar. Be sure to chill at least a couple of hours before serving.

Do you know how zestful cranberry sauce is mixed with applesauce? Or heat canned pears in a little of their syrup along with grated lemon rind and then fill the cavities with cranberry sauce. Serve as a main-dish accompaniment or dessert.

Then there are the cranberry quick loaves, muffins and sweet biscuits. For something new, we don't believe you'll be disappointed in this coffee cake. It has a light texture and delectable flavor. Easy to make, too!

Cranberry Orange Upside-down Coffee Cake

6 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup firmly-packed light brown sugar, 1 cup cranberries (cut in halves), 1/4 cup chopped pecans, 1 1/2 cups biscuit mix, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 2-3 cup orange juice.

Melt 3 tablespoons of the butter in a baking pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches); mix in brown sugar, cranberries, and pecans; spread evenly.

Beat together enough to blend the biscuit mix, granulated sugar, 3 remaining tablespoons soft butter, egg, orange rind and 1-3 cup of the orange juice; beat vigorously 1 minute more. Gradually stir in remaining 1-3 cup orange juice; beat 1 minute. Pour over cranberry mixture in pan.

Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 40 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Turn out on serving plate. Delicious served warm.

Braised Lamb Shoulder

(Yield: 3 to 5 servings)

One lamb shoulder roast, bone-in, 3 to 5 pounds; 1/4 cup melted shortening, 1 onion, sliced; 1 carrot, diced; 1 clove garlic, chopped; 1/2 cup chopped celery with leaves,

1/2 bay leaf, whole black pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 cups water, flour, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper.

Brown roast in melted shortening in a heavy kettle. Add onion, carrot, garlic, celery, bay leaf, whole peppers, 1 teaspoon salt, and water. Cover and bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) 2 hours or until fork-tender.

Remove meat to a hot platter. Lift vegetables from broth and place around meat. Cover or place in oven to keep warm. Thicken broth for gravy, making a paste with 1 1/2 tablespoons flour mixed with a small amount of cold water for each cup of broth.

Add Worcestershire sauce and salt and pepper as needed. Simmer gravy for 5 minutes. Serve with meat and vegetables.

Something New For Turkey

Although you can get frozen turkeys that are already stuffed with old-fashioned bread stuffing and ready for the oven, many cooks still prefer to use their own homemade stuffing.

As you know, modern frozen turkeys are "tucked" for convenience. The drumsticks have been tucked into a slit of skin at the base of the breastbone to form a natural truss, eliminating need for needles, string, or skewers.

Fresh Grapefruit Stuffing

Combine 5 cups toasted bread cubes, 3/4 cup diced celery, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 1 cup diced fresh grapefruit, 1 tablespoon minced fresh parsley, 1 1/2 teaspoons grated grapefruit rind, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1/2 cup boiling water or chicken broth and 1-3 cup melted butter or margarine. Stuff body cavity and crop of a 5 to 6-pound ready-to-cook turkey. Double recipe for 12-pound turkey (Good for stuffing chicken and duck, also).

Chestnut Stuffing (Yield: 9 cups; enough to stuff a 12-pound bird)

One and one-half cups finely chopped onion, 1 1/2 cups finely chopped celery, 1-3 cup butter or margarine, 8 cups dry bread cubes (1/2 inch), 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 1/2 teaspoon sage, 1 cup chopped chestnuts, 1/4 cup water, 1 egg, well beaten.

Cook onions and celery in butter in a skillet until tender. Add mixture to bread cubes. Combine watings and chestnuts. Combine water and egg. Add to bread mixture and mix thoroughly. Stuff thawed bird immediately after roast.

Vanilla Fudge Squares

(Yield: 32 squares)

Two-thirds cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup shortening, 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, 1 cup brown sugar, 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons milk, 1/2 cup chopped nuts, 1/4 cup seedless raisins.

Sift the first 4 ingredients together; Set aside for later use. In the top of a double boiler, large enough for mixing batter, melt shortening and chocolate over hot water.

Stir in sugar and vanilla extract. Beat in eggs. Add milk and flour mixture. Blend in nuts and raisins. Turn into a well-greased lightly floured 9x9x2 inch square pan.

Spread uniformly over bottom of pan. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 45 minutes or until done. Turn out on wire rack to cool. Cut into squares. Store in a tightly closed container.

Sweets for Holiday Table

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Does your family, like ours, appreciate a lagniappe—a gracious extra — among traditional Thanksgiving desserts?

If so, plan to concoct a sweet trifle that may be brought out as a pleasant surprise hours after the pumpkin and mince pies have been devoured. No matter how the diners around our holiday table moan that they "can't eat another thing" the extras are always consumed. One batch of hearty eating seems to breed a desire for more.

The lagniappe also has a practical use. Whether dinner is at noon or between six and seven o'clock, there are often relatives and friends dropping in during the afternoon or evening. The extra dessert is perfect to serve with a fresh batch of tea or coffee.

So this year what is the offering to be? We vote for Maple Cream Cornucopias, and here's the how and why of this suggestion.

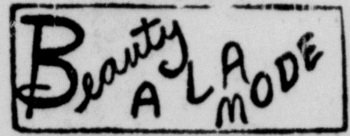

For years we've been using the same wafer recipe—one calling for flour, butter and blended maple syrup—that may be familiar to you. These we rolled in the traditional tube shape. But recently we had a bright idea that worked out just the way we dreamed it would. We shaped the wafers into cornucopias. Then reminded of the cone-shaped wafers lusciously filled with whipped cream, beloved by Europeans, we gave our cornucopias the same treatment.

These trifles are rich, as befits a holiday dessert. But for all their lavish taste they are pleasantly inexpensive.

Maple Cream Cornucopias

1/2 cup blended maple syrup, 1/4 cup butter, 1/2 cup flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Maple Cream.
Stir together syrup and butter in saucepan over high heat; bring to a boil and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from heat; add flour and salt and stir until smooth. Drop level tablespoons, 3 inches apart, on greased cookie sheet. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 9 minutes.

Remove from oven and cool about 1 minute. With wide spatula or pancake turner remove a wafer and quickly lap over two edges to form cornucopia shape; with fingers press lapped edges lightly together. Place on wire rack to cool. Quickly shape remaining wafers, one at a time, the same way (if any wafers harden before they are rolled, return to oven for a few seconds). Lightly spoon Maple Cream into cornucopias with out

PERSONALIZED STYLING

The shingle bob of the 1920's simply chopped off the hair, sleeked it to the head, and this rigid style was worn by all women way back then. Today's fashion-minded women would gasp at this idea of carbon-copy coils for everybody. They want personalized hairstyles that have a one-of-a-kind quality about them. Creative innovations give individuality and freshness to your hairdo instead of monotonous conformity.

Let us arrange your personalized hairstyle. It will be adapted for you alone. Make an appointment.

Creamed Turkey Trio

(Serves 4 to 6)

Four tablespoons butter or margarine, 5 tablespoons flour, 1 cup light cream or rich milk, 1/2 cup turkey or chicken stock, 1-3 cup sauterne or other white dinner wine, or water with lemon juice, 1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce dash of mace or nutmeg, salt, onion salt and pepper to taste; 2 cups diced, cooked turkey; 1 (4-ounce) can sliced mushrooms, drained; 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 2 tablespoons sherry or lemon juice.

Melt butter and stir in flour; gradually add cream and stock; cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is thickened and smooth. Add wine or water and cheese; stir over low heat until cheese melts; add seasonings.

Stir in turkey, mushrooms, parsley and sherry or lemon juice. Taste and add more salt, if needed. Heat gently but thoroughly before serving in one of these ways:

1. Line individual casseroles with hot chopped, cooked spinach or broccoli. (Be sure spinach or broccoli is thoroughly drained.) Spoon hot creamed turkey over vegetable; sprinkle with grated cheddar or parmesan cheese and paprika. Broil slowly until bubbly and delicately browned.

2. Split, toast and butter English muffins or hamburger buns; spread generously with deviled ham. Spoon creamed turkey over them, dust with paprika and serve at once.

3. Gently mix hot, cooked rice with melted butter, chopped pimento and grated green pepper (inside only, no skin) to taste. Spoon rounds of the rice on heated dinner plates and top with the creamed turkey.

to egg mixture with milk and stir only until blended. Add oats, apple, cheese and nuts all at once; stir lightly. (Batter will be very stiff). Place in greased 1 - pound loaf pan. Bake in preheated oven (350 degrees F.) about 50 minutes. Here's another good recipe using fresh fruit:

Chocolate Pear Compote (Yield: 6 servings)

One and one-half cups sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup fresh orange juice, 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice, 6 fresh Bartlett pears, fresh orange and lemon slices, whipped cream (optional), shaved unsweetened chocolate or chocolate decorations.

Boil sugar, water, orange and lemon juice together for 3 minutes. Peel pears, cut into halves and remove cores. Add to hot syrup. Cover and cook 15 minutes or until tender. Add fruit slices last 3 minutes of cooking time. Cool. Place in serving dishes. Top with whipped cream and a sprinkling of shaved unsweetened chocolate.

Apple Cheese Bread Flavorful

Quick breads are always popular—particularly when apples, cheese, rolled oats and nuts go in to the batter. This bread has unusual keeping qualities. Excellent for school box, bedtime snack, with afternoon tea or for after-school snack.

Apple-Cheese Bread (Makes 1 loaf)
One-half cup shortening, soft; 1/2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons milk, 1/4 cup rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked), 1 cup finely chopped raw apple, 2-3 cup coarsely grated sharp cheese, 1/2 cup chopped nuts.

Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees F.). Beat shortening until creamy. Gradually add sugar. Add eggs; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Add on a platter with thinly sliced boiled ham and sliced Swiss cheese the first night. Garnish with cubes of cranberry jelly.

Solution For Leftover Turkey

Lots of good turkey meat is usually left over from the Thanksgiving feast. That can mean more good turkey dishes in the next few days.

Make either sweet or white potato pancakes out of leftover potatoes to go with the cold meat platter.

On the second night, serve this rich turkey corn chowder. Pass a basket of sea biscuits, or hot baking powder biscuits.

Turkey-Corn Chowder (8 to 10 servings)

One cup thinly sliced onion, 1/4 cup butter, 2 cups diced (about inch) potatoes, 1 cup thinly sliced celery, 1 cup water, 2 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 chicken bouillon cube, 3 cups milk, 3 cups diced cooked turkey or chicken, 1 can (1-pound, 1-ounce) cream-style corn (2 cups)

1/2 teaspoon thyme, 1/4 cup chopped parsley.

Saute onion slowly in butter until tender but not brown in large Dutch oven or saucepan. Add potatoes, celery, water, salt and bouillon cube.

Cover and cook until potatoes and celery are tender, about 15 minutes. Add milk, turkey or chicken, corn and thyme. Heat. Just before serving, stir in parsley.

Willow Grove Has Program

Applications from nine juveniles for membership in the subordinate grange were acted upon at a recent meeting of Willow Grove Grange in the grange hall. The first degree will be exemplified by Pomona Youth Team of Columbiana County.

Thirty-five attended the meeting which was presided over by Don Ald Sanor, master.

The literary program, presented by Mrs. Harry Sherwood, was in observance of Veterans Day and Thanksgiving Day. Selections on the program were:

"Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," group; roll call, "My Plan for World Peace," piano trio, "March Lyrique," Mrs. Fred Roth and daughters, Marjorie and Kathy;

Humorous tableau, Sandra Sherwood, Donald Sanor, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Domencetti, Mrs. Floyd Stamp, Mrs. Howard Milligan, Mrs. Bryan Sanor, Marjorie Oyer;

Reading, "The First Thanksgiving," Mrs. Stamp; piano solo, "Minuet," Kathy Oyer; quiz, "What Do You Know About Thanksgiving?" and tableau, "The Psalmist," Mrs. Warren Bare.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Milligan and her committee.

There will be a round and square benefit dance Nov. 25 at the grange, with Bernie Phillips calling. Tickets may be obtained from members in advance or at the door the night of the dance.

The next meeting will be Dec. 9 in the grange hall.

Do you know the correct way to serve Gouda or Edam cheese when it is offered with crackers at the end of a meal or as a snack? This cannon-ball shaped cheese, with its gay outer red covering, should have its top cut off; then eaters can help themselves by scooping out pieces of the cheese.

Coach Cabas Cuts Salem High Basketball Squad to 25

Mentor Says Time Conflict With Intramurals Causes Problems

Several Football Players Join Team This Week for Practice Sessions

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

Now that football season is over, Salem High Basketball Coach John Cabas has gotten his first look this week at what he will have to choose from for his 1960-61 cage squad.

Several football players joined the basketball squad on Monday. The remainder of the team has been working out in the gym since Nov. 1. Included among those who joined the cage squad this week is Don Davidson, the only returning letterwinner from last year's varsity which won 17 games and lost only three.

Other football players who have come out for the basketball squad are seniors Fred Harshman, Ron Janovec and Duane McClaskey; junior Jim Gibb and sophomores Bill Beery and Dave Capel.

McCLASKEY MAY be lost to the team because of a knee injury suffered in football. He has not started practice and Coach Cabas says that if he plays at all, it probably won't be until late in the season.

Coach Cabas reports that approximately 55 to 60 boys have come out for the team. He says he plans to keep a maximum of five seniors and probably 10 juniors and eight sophomores for the varsity and reserve squads.

The Quaker mentor says that for the first time since he started coaching here 11 years ago, it looks as though he is going to have to cut players from the squad.

"Since the emphasis at this school now seems to be on intramurals," Cabas remarked, "we just don't have time to work with a big squad. Under the present setup we can't get on the floor until 4:30."

"I THINK an intramural program is a fine thing but I don't see how you can justify a girls intramural program for just 10 girls. There is a place for an intramural program if it is run right."

Cabas indicated that he doesn't believe the present intramural program at the high school justifies itself.

"Intramurals have the gym floor until 4 p.m. By the time we get the place cleared, ready for us to start practice, it's about 4:30," Cabas explained.

"If they want an intramural program, and I suppose it's a good thing, let them take all the time they want. We'll take what's left, but we'll have to cut our squad."

In the past Cabas explained that players have dropped off the team on their own but he has never cut anyone.

Of the 55 or 60 boys who have tried out for the team, Cabas invited only 25 out to yesterday's practice. These included McClaskey and sophomore Tad Bonsall, both of whom are injured, and three others who took the day off to go hunting.

ALTHOUGH MOST of the boys lack of experience this could be one of the tallest teams in the school's history. Seniors Don Davidson and Ted Couchie and junior Ted Thorne have all stretched up to 6-5. Couchie and Thorne played reserve ball last year. Ron Janovec, 6-3, 205 pound senior, also must be considered as a possible starter on the varsity. He was a tower of strength in the rebounding department last year for the reserves.

Probably the most experienced sophomore is Bill Beery, 6-0½, who played varsity ball as a freshman at Greenford last year and was his team's second leading scorer.

Salem Assistant Coach Karl Zellers remarked, "For those people who believe we recruited Beery, the truth is — the first time we met the boy was at practice Monday when we introduced ourselves to him."

Under Cabas' plan of keeping five seniors, 10 juniors and eight sophomores, two more sophomores are expected to be cut from the 25 invited out to practice yesterday.

Following is a roster from which Coach Cabas will probably select his final 23 players:

SENIORS

Salem Hosts 3 Teams Nov. 26

Area Cage Previews Scheduled Next Week

Pairings have been completed for three area high school basketball previews, including one on Saturday, Nov. 26 in the Salem Senior High gym.

Greenford will play host for the Inter-County League preview while Jackson-Milton will be the scene of the Turnpike Conference affair. Both of these previews are scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 23.

Taking part in the Salem preview will be the Alliance Aviators, Kent Roosevelt, Massillon and Coach John Cabas' Salem Quakers. Athletic Director Fred Cope announces the pairings for the eight-minute games are as follows:

8:25, Alliance vs Kent Roosevelt
8:50, Salem freshmen vs Salem reserves (exhibition)
9:15, Kent Roosevelt vs Massillon

9:45, Salem vs Alliance

Following the preview, player-coaches and the press will be treated to a lunch in the school cafeteria.

All tickets for the Salem preview will cost $1. There will be no reserved seats. Doors to the Salem gym will open at 7 p.m.

In the Turnpike Conference preview at Jackson-Milton, there will be six eight-minute games with a five-minute warm up between the games.

Starting at 7:30 p.m., the games will run as follows:
1, Jackson-Milton vs West Branch
2, West Branch vs United
3, United vs Canfield
4, Canfield vs Springfield
5, Springfield Local vs Warren
St. Mary
6, Warren St. Mary vs Jackson-Milton

The Inter-County preview at Greenford will get underway at 6:30 p.m. The pairings are as follows:
6:30, Mineral Ridge vs Fairfield-Waterford
7:10, Western Reserve vs McDonaid
7:50, Lowellville vs Ravenna
8:30, Greenford vs North Lima

Grid Deaths Declined This Season

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Thirteen players have received fatal injuries as a direct result of 1960 football competition, compared with 16 at this time last season.

So says the annual mid season report of Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood of Los Angeles State College, reporting for the American Football Coaches Association's Committee on Injuries and Fatalities.

Dr. Eastwood said Tuesday night that one reason for the decline may be the delay his committee experiences in receiving reports of injuries sustained in sandlot games. Five sandlot fatalities had occurred at this time last year, but only one has been reported so far in 1960.

Five football deaths last year were due to heat stroke, while two have been reported this season.

Frick Says AL Must Pay to Share Territory With NL Team There

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League goes into its expansion meeting Thursday with baseball Commissioner Ford Frick casting a skeptical eye on its plans and Congress threatening to take antimonopoly action if a club isn't placed in Los Angeles.

The league wants to place a team in Los Angeles next year and will work on an attempt to complete the proposal and put it to the joint major league meeting.

nine teams—the old seven, plus the new franchise in Washington and the former Washington club in St. Paul-Minneapolis.

The specter of government action loomed. Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., chairman of the antimonopoly committee, warned against any delay in expansion.

"Congress will regulate baseball as strictly a business in interstate commerce if the baseball people break faith with my committee and the public," he said.

Pitt Coach to Speak At Football Banquet

John Michelosen, head football coach at the University of Pittsburgh, will be the guest speaker at the Salem High football banquet which has been scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 3, at the Memorial Building.

Walt DeJane, president of the Salem Booster Club which sponsors the banquet annually, said today that Michelosen has agreed to take part in the program honoring the 1960 Quaker football squad.

The veteran coach will bring along with him Lou Slaby, former Salem High athlete who is now performing for the Pitt varsity.

Salem Boosters To Elect Officers

The Salem Booster Club's annual meeting for the election of officers will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Memorial Building.

Only two offices are being contested. They are for vice president where Clair Leeper and Calvin Filler are the nominees and for secretary where Gordon Arndt and Dave Brinken are up for election.

Dick Loutzenhiser, the present vice president, is unopposed for president. The same is true for the post of treasurer, where Don "Duck" DeJane is the only candidate.

The new officers will take over after Dec. 31.

Head football coach Blaine Morton will also show films of the Salem-Girard game at the meeting Thursday.

Syndicate To Purchase A's Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Formal sale of the Kansas City Athletics' baseball club to a St. Louis syndicate headed by investment broker Elliot Stein was scheduled today.

Probate Judge Robert J. Dunne ordered the sale Tuesday for a reported $3.5 million after an out-of-court agreement had been reached by co-executors of the estate of Arnold Johnson, who owned 52 per cent of the club before his death last March 10.

Mrs. Warren W. Humes, remarried widow of Johnson, and the City National Bank of Chicago—co-executors of Johnson's estate—had disagreed what was to be done with the stock.

Mrs. Humes wished to retain the 52 per cent but the bank insisted it be sold in order to pay taxes and debts of $1.5 million on Johnson's estate.

Beaver Local Cage Squad Builds Around 4 Veterans

The Beaver Local High School basketball squad, preparing for its opener on Dec. 2 at Southside, is building its attack around four returning letterwinners, all of whom were starters last season.

Of the five leading scorers on the 1959-60 Beaver Local squad, only Thurman Allen was lost through graduation. Mike Durbin, who led the Beavers in scoring last year with 208 points, is back. So are regulars Jim Pike, Dick Barnhart and Bill Reed.

Beaver Local won eight games and lost 10 last season. Coach Jack Frontone believes that Durbin, a 6-3 senior, will come into his own this year. He is a fine rebounder and a good hook and jump shot artist.

Pike and Reed are expected to give the Beavers good strength at the guards. Both are seniors. Pike, 5-8, is the team's playmaker. He likes to drive and is a good set shooter.

Reed is also a good driver. When he's hot, he hits well from outside. Both guards rebound well for their size.

Barnhart is also a senior and will play a forward. He is 6-0. Last year he gave the Beaver offense a shot in the arm, while averaging 17 rebounds per game.

John Baker, a junior, will attempt to enter the lineup as the other forward. He goes at 5-11 and weighs 213 pounds. Coach Frontone is trying to get him to shed excess poundage. Baker can rebound and is a good shot.

Jim Banner, 6-3 senior, who was out of action for three weeks last year due to death in his family, will find a place at forward or alternate center, his coach reports.

A sophomore who looks promising is Dave Myer. This 5-10 guard lacks experience but possesses a fine jump shot. He will play reserve ball and possibly see some varsity action, depending upon how he comes along.

Indications are, the Beavers could develop into one of the strongest teams in the area.

BOAT SHOW PLANNED

The annual Mid-American Boat Show will be held Jan. 21-29 at Cleveland Public Hall. Five acres of exhibit space will be used for display of over 400 new boats, plus new motor lines, marine accessories, water sports equipment, and related products and services.

Jimmy Brown Regains NFL Rushing Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown of Cleveland is in his accustomed spot—ground gaining leader of the National Football League.

The former Syracuse star enjoyed his best day of the season last Sunday when he clipped off 173 yards on 28 carries to boost his season's total to 694 yards on 123 carries for an average of 5.6 yards.

Jimmy Taylor of Green Bay, who led a week ago, has gained 661 yards on 143 attempts for a 4.6 average.

Green Bay's Paul Hornung needs only 39 points in five games to better the individual one-season scoring record. The former Notre Dame star has scored eight touchdowns, 25 successive extra points, and has booted 9 of 17 field goals for an even 100 points.

Russian Ping-Pongers Trounce U.S. Stars

BALTIMORE (AP) — A team of Russian ping-pong experts trounced a group of American stars Tuesday night, and confidently predicted that the Soviet Union soon would lead the world in table tennis.

In an exhibition game at the Baltimore Table Tennis Club, three Russian teen-agers defeated three Americans 9-0.

Maryland End Honored for Line Play

By The Associated Press

With 65 seconds left, Gary Collins caught a forward pass from quarterback Dale Betty and raced over for the winning touchdown in Maryland's 22-19 victory over North Carolina last Saturday.

That play clinched Lineman of the Week honors today for the lanky Maryland end in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

The winning touchdown capped a tremendous game by Collins, a 6-3, 200-pound junior from Williamstown, Pa. He smeared North Carolina plays time and again. At one stage, when Maryland put on a goal-line stand, he made three of the four tackles that stopped the Tar Heels on the 2.

On another occasion he made five consecutive tackles, on three of them dumping the ball carrier for a loss. In addition he punted for a 36.5 yard average.

Other linemen nominated this week:

Ends — Bob Phillips, Texas A&M; Sonny Eavis, Baylor; Ken Byers, Cincinnati; Tee Moorman, Duke.

Tackles — Bob Lilly, Texas Christian; Jerry Mays, Southern Methodist; Jerry Beabout, Iowa.

Guards — Monte Lee, Texas; Bobby Lively, Rice; Dick Clocke, Arizona State Univ.

Centers — Wayne Harris, Arkansas; E. J. Holub, Texas Tech; Roy McKasson, Washington.

KSU Winds Up Season at Dayton

The Kent State University football team will attempt to end the season with a 6-3 record Saturday when they meet the University of Dayton on the Flyers' home field.

The Golden Flashes lost their third game against five victories Friday night at Louisville. The aroused Cardinals pulled a 22-8 upset.

However, if Kent finishes with a 6-3 record it would be a successful season by most standards. Most experts had consigned the Flashes to a worse record with the predominance of sophomores in the Kent backfield.

Despite their record of one victory and eight defeats, the Flyers are figured to provide tough competition in the season finale.

The Flashes may not be in top physical condition for the contest. Guard Bill Saenger and end Bob Gusbar received injuries in the Louisville contest and may not be ready to go by Saturday.

Elgin Baylor Sets NBA Scoring Record

Salem News Circulation Manager Robert Conroy and the five News carriers who placed second in the recent "Trip to Brazil Contest" were in Madison Square Garden Tuesday night and saw Elgin Baylor break the NBA scoring record.

The carriers, George and Dennis Wire of Leetonia, John Shasteen of Columbiana and Tom Pim and Dave Thomas, both of Salem, are scheduled to return home tonight from their three-day tour of New York City.

Tuesday night after Elgin Baylor of the Los Angeles Lakers scored his 59th point against the New York Knicks to break the Garden individual high scoring mark for one game in the National Basketball Association.

About six minutes were left to play and the fans wanted Baylor to break the NBA record high of 64 points for one game that Baylor himself had set little over a year ago, Nov. 8, 1959, against the Boston Celtics.

Break it the former Seattle All-American did. He finished with 71 points on 28 field goals on 48 attempts and 15 of 19 free throws. When he was taken out with 28 seconds left he received an ovation.

It was incidental that Los Angeles beat the Knicks 123-108 in the feature of the Garden doubleheader after the Detroit Pistons had wiped out a 20-point deficit to beat the Boston Celtics 115-114 in overtime.

Baylor's feat also overshadowed the 44 points scored by Oscar Robertson in Cincinnati's 124-115 victory over Philadelphia, the Warriors' second straight defeat after a nine-game winning streak.

"I got very nervous when they announced I had set a Garden record at 59 points," Baylor said in the dressing room. "They tried to feed me so much when the crowd started chanting that I asked the boys to let me make my own plays."

He scored 34 of his 71 points in the first half.

Giants May Sign Japanese Players

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Horace Stoneham, owner of the San Francisco Giants, said Tuesday the Giants are on the verge of signing a Japanese pitcher and third baseman.

The Japanese players would start with the Giants' Tacoma, Wash., club in the Pacific Coast League.

"I can neither spell nor pronounce their names," Stoneham quipped, "but both are exceptional prospects."

Football Giants Face Stern Test

Conerly May Sit Out Contest With Eagles

NEW YORK (AP) — Quarterbacks—the one he has to face and the one he may not have—are the bane of New York Giants Coach Jim Lee Howell today as he prepares his team for Sunday's crucial National Football League game here against Philadelphia.

The Giants trail the Eastern Conference-leading Eagles by a half game, and must play them again the following Sunday in Philadelphia. A double victory is almost a must if the Giants hope to win their third straight conference title.

The quarterback he must face is Norm Van Brocklin, the 11-year NFL veteran who has hustled the Eagles to six straight victories after an opening loss, later avenged, to Cleveland.

What worries Howell even more is the one he may not have—12-year veteran Charley Conerly, who twisted ligaments in his left knee in Sunday's 27-24 victory over Pittsburgh. Doctors were to determine later if Conerly might be fit to face the Eagles.

George Shaw will get the call if Conerly is unable to play.

Ben Agajanian Is Oldest Pro

Kicking Specialist Lost Toes in Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Considering that some of his teammates were only 3 or 4 years old when he started in professional football, Ben Agajanian must be regarded as an amazing article.

Now 41 and a trim 200 pounds, Ben is the place-kicking specialist for the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League.

He is the oldest player in pro ranks in the country, and in his 18 years he has played in every major and bush league in the U.S.

Aggie shrugged off reports he might retire. "Quit? I'm having too much fun," he said Tuesday.

His greatest years, in widely separated stretches, were with the New York Giants in 1950-51-52 and 1955-56-57 and part of 1958. The Philadelphia Eagles, Washington Redskins, the Rams and the Los Angeles Dons of the old All-America Conference, Pittsburgh, the Hollywood Bears (1942) — Agajanian has played for the best.

He decided early that he would last longer as a kicking specialist. This year Aggie has kicked six field goals. His three field goals, one for 46 yards, beat the Denver Broncos.

He lost all but the little toe of his right-kicking-foot in a freight elevator accident in 1941. Today he can joke about such a tragedy.

A father once asked him how to make a placekicker out of his son. "Cut off his toes," answered Ben.

Orioles' Manager Signs 3-Year Pact

BALTIMORE (AP) — Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles today headed for the American League meeting in New York with a new three-year contract in his pocket.

Richards, the American League manager of the year, Tuesday signed the contract which will have him at the helm of the Orioles through 1963.

Terms of the contract were not disclosed, but he reportedly was to get $45,000 a year and five cents a head for every person over 909,000 attending Orioles home games each year.

LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

So brilliantly engineered,
so carefully built it is dealer-warranted
for two full years or 24,000 miles, whichever occurs first*

"Classic beauty in a smart new size." Here is the first fine car that is truly luxurious to drive in today's traffic. Thoughtful engineering has created a superb six-passenger automobile that is 14 inches shorter—yet as heavy or heavier than other American luxury cars, to provide the solid ride you expect. It also has devised center-opening doors that make entrance far more convenient, contour-zoned seats that are cushioned with nearly three times the usual amount of foam rubber, vacuum-locked doors that bolt shut at a flick of the driver's finger, silent, hydraulic windshield wipers with 50 per cent more power, a quality program that puts every car through a 12-mile road test and brings high precision standards of construction to America's largest V-8 engine. A glance reveals the character of this tremendously advanced car, the enduring beauty of true classic design, the excitement of America's only four-door convertible. But it is only at the wheel that you begin to understand the real significance of the new Lincoln Continental, the brilliant blend of sensible size and total luxury. Why not make that discovery yourself, this week? Lincoln-Mercury Division, Ford Motor Company.

*The terms of the extended warranty provide that for 24 months or for 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers, of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will continue to be made by the tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance service and routine replacement of such maintenance items as filters, spark plugs, ignition points and wiper blades.

Hunters taking to the fields on the first day of the small game season are the ones who have the best luck, according to observations.

Wild game, particularly this year's crop that has never heard the popping of guns, just sit tight and wait to be forced to move from their hiding places.

After the first two days of the hunting season, some of the smart bunnies take to groundhog holes and the cock pheasants take to their heels. I have seen hunters walking abreast heading in one direction while the pheasants were crossing the road behind the hunters going the opposite direction.

It doesn't take game long to learn how to get away from their enemies, whether they be man or animal.

IF YOU ARE approached by the game protector and he requests the eyeballs from the rabbit's head, don't think he has "flipped his lid." Gathering rabbit eyeballs is part of the game protector's assignments for the first week of the hunting season.

It has been discovered in recent years that the age of a rabbit can be told by the weight of the eyeballs. Hence, the eyeballs will be preserved in a solution and then turned over to one of the game technicians who will come up with some sort of an answer.

For the past two decades, game protectors have been relieved of law enforcement duties as prime importance in their work. Gathering information for game biologists along with other responsibilities.

HERE ARE SOME of the things game protectors have been doing over a period of time:

Making hunter bag checks, fishermen creel census, taking deer jaws and ovaries from the does, collecting blood samples from all wild animals including rats and chipmunks.

Making game surveys both audio and visual, collecting wings and tails from grouse, wings from quail, paws from squirrels, waterfowl surveys, banding nesting doves, arrange land development on private lands for the benefit of wildlife inspect plant survival, check out all known cases of stream pollution.

Assist in test netting, rabbit trapping, removal of nuisance beavers, work with related conservation agencies, make speeches when asked to do so if he can't squirm out of it, secure sponsorship for teachers to the Conservation Laboratory.

ATTEND SPORTSMEN meetings, district and state meetings, promote hunter safety programs, report all accidental shootings, collect fish or game tags, etc., make out yards of reports and take at least one day off each week although allowed two.

The rest of the time he can try to get acquainted with his family...yes, it is bad as all that and he must still enforce the fish and game laws.

Columbiana Council Okays Purchase of New Police Car

COLUMBIANA — Village Council Tuesday night authorized the advertising for bids on furnishing a new four-door sedan police cruiser to replace the present two-year old model.

Bids will be opened Dec. 17 and Council will act on them at its Dec. 20 meeting. The resolution also stipulates that each bidder must submit a purchase offer on the used cruiser.

A revised vacation ordinance covering village employees also was adopted at the meeting, providing up to three weeks of paid vacation for an employee with 15 or more years of service. Two weeks are granted a worker with more than four years and less than 15. An employee with more than one year but less than four years of employment qualifies for one week.

Years of service are determined from the anniversary date of the employee's hiring.

A DISCUSSION of the little Asian country of Nepal, only recently born a democracy after more than 100 years of control by one family, was presented at the Rotary Club meeting Monday night at the Valley Golf Club. The speaker was James Witmer of RD Columbiana who just returned from three years of work in Nepal with the Monomote Relief Commission, serving in a mission hospital.

He illustrated his talk with color slides of the fabulous Himalayan Mountains scenery. The range borders Nepal on the north.

Rotary President L. A. Way presented a charter member's badge to the club's only surviving charter member, Wick Fry. The club was formed in 1923.

Visiting Rotarians at the meeting were Glenn Oliver and Dr. F. R. Crowgey of Salem and the latter's brother, L. J. Crowgey of Woodsfield, Va.

SPEAKER AT THE Kiwanis Club meeting Monday night at Heck's Restaurant was Atty. Jack D. Kuhlman, club member who makes a hobby of the study of history. He discussed the American Civil War, for which the 100th anniversary is approaching. Atty. Kuhlman has spent quite a bit of time studying and researching the War Between the States and has visited many of the war's battlefields. He was introduced by John Golden, program chairman.

Ohio Bell to Hold 2-Day Open House

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. will hold a public open house and telephone science exhibit at its Salem office on N. Lundy Ave. Thursday and Friday evenings from 6:30 to 9.

Ohio Bell Commercial Manager W. J. McKay said "it is an opportunity for visitors to see the tremendous maze of wires, switches and relays that go to work each time they lift the receiver to dial a telephone call.

Guides will be on hand to show visitors through the building and to explain the equipment.

Much of the first floor central office space will be taken up with exhibits demonstrating modern developments in the communications industry. One exhibit will show the working of the now-famous Echo satellite. Another will depict how solar batteries convert rays of the sun into useful electrical energy. A third display will illustrate how several conversations can be sent along the transatlantic cables without becoming confused with one another at the other end.

Because of its timely scientific significance, high school science students and their teachers are especially invited.

4-H Leadership Club Will Meet Thursday

The monthly 4-H Junior Leadership Club meeting will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at Lisbon Grange Hall, Joseph V. Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work, said.

A special invitation is extended to all potential junior leaders — 4-H boys and girls 14 years of age and who have three years of club work. The meeting's agenda includes explanations of the county 4-H council, sub committees, county 4-H clubs, county and state awards program and county wide activities.

Refreshments will be served after the business session. James Converse of Leetonia RD 2, president of the club, will preside.
